How well do you know the applicant and in what capacity? *

I've known Ms Braga for about five years. We met as students in the George Brown continuing education Visual and Fine Arts program. I purchased one of her artworks that was on display in a class she was taking. She is a confident, talented artist. We stayed in touch and she has been my guest at TGIF and zoom Club Night. Ms. Braga has met a number of Club members who encouraged her to consider a Club membership. Recently, I retained Ms Braga's services as a studio assistant to help me complete my latest wordless novel.

What Club activities do you think he or she might enjoy and contribute to: *

As a full-time student of the OCAD Drawing and Painting program, Ms. Braga looks forward to participating in the Friday painters and the Monday night painters.

She is also eager to meet other Members once the Club reopens. Ms. Braga is also enthusiastic about entering her work in the Member Exhibitions and N4XT.

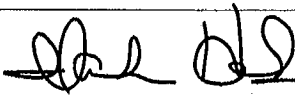

Other comments:

Because of her friendly energy and positive nature, Ms Braga will be a powerful ambassador for the Club amongst her peers.

She is just beginning her 4-year OCAD journey and her Club membership will be an invaluable asset to both herself as well as to the Arts & Letters Club.

I have known Zoe Braga for about four years. I first met Zoe as Mark Huebner's TGIF guest and as recently as the N3XT zoom Club Night.

She is an engaging artist who is a joy to converse with. Zoe asks smart questions and is eager to learn more about navigating the art world in general.

What Club activities do you think he or she might enjoy and contribute to: *

Zoe loves to draw and she will quickly find a welcoming home with the Monday night and Friday painters. She is committed to publically showing her artwork. Entering the Member Exhibitions is a high priority for her.

I am hoping her busy schedule will allow her to join the N4XT effort. I believe she will influence N4XT entrants through her contact with fellow OCAD art students.

Other comments:

Inspiring and helping guide the next generation of Canadian artists is deeply important to me. In my experience, Zoe Braga is an artist who not only has great talent, but who also seeks to improve it and share it with others. I look forward to a long and continued association with Zoe through her Club presence.
